SLIGHTLY DISFIGURED!

But still in the ring. The tremendous rush on our stock of superior Clothing for the past two weeks has made a considerable hole in it. Nevertheless, we have still a very complete assortment of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, in Suits, Trousers and Overcoats—all our own manufacture, and since we commenced a reduction in prices for the holiday season, we do not feel like going back to our regular prices, as we fully intended to do. We omit, therefore, continue our popular series of low prices in force until further notice.
We take this occasion to again remind the people of this city and vicinity that we do not sell Eastern-made Clothing. We do not consider it reliable, nor worth the price the customer pays for it. We prefer to manufacture our stock right here at home, thus insuring first-class and satisfactory work, and, besides, giving employment to hundreds of our own people, and leaving the money to circulate at home.

Come to us for honest Clothing at exceedingly low prices. Come to us for real bargains. Our stock will be further reduced, and the past two or three weeks have convinced us how to do it.

Don't notice our window display for special prices.

INTELLIGENT INVESTMENT.

THE INTER-STATE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF BLOOMINGTON, ILL.

There is no question as to its reliability.

The Sunday News published at Bloomington, Ill., the home of the Inter-State, says:
"Every person interested in the establishment of this county of a judiciously invested capital will find in the Inter-State Building and Loan Association a most profitable plan of investment of capital will be justified to learn of the prosperity, popularity and sound ability of the Inter-State Building and Loan Association, of Bloomington, Illinois, in its proposition to invest money and erect homes on purely business like principles has met with a generous and encouraging response from all parts of the country.
Wherever the Inter-State has opened branch offices the most prudent of the community have examined and commended the simplicity and soundness of the plan, and have commended the confidence by placing money for investment."

The founders and promoters of the Inter-State Building and Loan Association have set an example of philanthropy which are devoting their time and talents to the improvement of their fellow-beings with our price, but are highly-minded, honest and capable men of affairs, who having devised a perfectly simple and practical system of safe and sure investment, have gone into it upon a commercial basis. No enterprise ever instituted in this country has appealed so directly to the intelligence and good judgment of wide-waived and capitalists of large and large means as the Inter-State Building and Loan Association, and soon has met with so many loyal from the people.
One of the most solid points of this association is its easily understood and straight-forward method of doing and dividing. There is nothing complex or hidden about the operations of the plan. As to its reliability there can be no question, for the gentleman who directed its affairs are honored by their fellow-citizens and have filled the highest positions of responsibility and trust in State and nation with credit to themselves and benefit to the public service.

Judge John Roberts at His Old Home.

but the Judge has a warm grasp at all times, honorable and profitable plan of investment of capital will be justified to learn of the prosperity, popularity and sound ability of the Inter-State Building and Loan
has met with a generous and encouraging response from all parts of the country.
Wherever the Inter-State has opened branch offices the most prudent of the
